

EXTRACTING NARRATIVES

is an artistic program that brings together new work by contemporary painters Jeroen Witvliet (All Tomorrow's Parties) and Neil McClelland (The Perfect Nowhere) in an exhibition that draws attention to shifting relations found in daily life and varied stories told through the painted image. SOURCE MATERIAL is a concurrent assemblage of photographs and sculptural objects by local visual arts students and alumni from NIC/ECUAD featured in CVAG's Community Space. A community MAKE ART PROJECT invites participation throughout the run of the exhibition, beginning with an artist-led make event on January 21.

EXHIBITION: 21 January – 25 February, 2017
